Who We Are: A Community Organization

Out of all of the places in the world and all of the neighborhoods in Puerto Vallarta, you chose our neighborhood in which to place roots.

We are an eclectic and diverse group of people

- Mexican, American, Canadian, other nationalities
- Gay and Straight
- Owners and Renters
- Home Owners and Local Business owners

Welcome to the Colonia Amapas from 500 of your new neighbors – Mexican, American, Canadian, other nationalities, home owners, renters, and businesses working together to make life better in Colonia Amapas.

What brings us together is the love of our community and our desire to make Colonia Amapas a better place.

Look up and down, and all around, and you will see what ANA does.

We repair existing streets, fill in potholes, put up street signs, repair the stairs you use to get to the beach, put out those Big Blue Trash Barrels you see on our streets and the highway, lights on the highway, and work with City Hall to improve trash collection, crosswalks on the highway, planters in neighborhood gathering spots, lighting historical trees, and other services. You might wonder why doesn't the city take care of these things? Well, welcome to Mexico where infrastructure and attractive surroundings is not a priority. It's important to us and your neighbors, so the Association (ANA) makes it happen.

Collaboration - Our Hallmark

ANA is a community volunteer organization of seven board members and other area volunteers who work endlessly to bring our issues to the Mayor, City Hall, and the various City departments. We collaborate with City Hall and other neighborhood associations to improve police protection; make our streets safer, cleaner, and more attractive; encourage sane and sustainable development; make our beaches cleaner and more accessible; and foster a sense of community.

Working together as a community, a city, even a specific street – ANA works at bringing all of us together for a common

QUESTIONS? QUESTIONS? QUESTIONS?

Who do I contact? How do I find out if my condo is already a part of the Amapas Neighborhood Association? How do I find out if my dues are paid? What if I'd like to volunteer? What if I have a business and I'd like to advertise to my neighbors? When is your next social event?

For these and many more questions, you might have, please contact our administrator, Viviana Testón at admin@amapaspv.com or visit her/us in our new ANA Office, just steps from the beach at 111 Calle Rodolfo Gomez -- we're a storefront in Hotel San Marino. You can learn more and sign up there.

We do all this with membership dues of $1500 pesos/year and contributions from public-spirited friends and neighbors.

Support our projects with your dues. Come to our social events and meet your new neighbors. Volunteer if you have the time -- there's always a place for new people at the table!

ANA needs you, and you need to become an active part of your new neighborhood – Join Us!

We're on the Web!
